A. H. S. we're ever loyal to thee
A. H. S. we will be true
Our Alma Mater be ever cherished
By all her sons and daughters too.

We sing thy praises, we cheer thee onward bravely
Glad for each victory won
O! School forever glorious
All hail to thee Our A. H. S.

A Pledge

For hundreds of years men have been striving to uphold the integrity of our governmental institution. Therefore, we shall do our humble part. This has been made possible through the guidance and instruction of our parents, our church, and our teachers. To all these educators we owe the discovery of our great heritage. To them we owe the realization that we, as the youth, have reaped the fruit of endless toil.

We hereby dedicate ourselves to the furtherance of peace and its preservation . . . peace made possible only by the recognition of universal brotherhood as the pillar of our existence. It is our prayer that all men might share a common love.

A Message from the Seniors

We, the class of 1954, have conflicting emotions as we say farewell. Now we are leaving the high school where so many memories of our last three years are housed. Yet they will always remain with us. For here we have met and attained the acknowledged standards of education, with an enduring satisfaction of accomplishment. However, a natural feeling of sadness surges through us as we realize that our high school days are at an end.

In future years we will relive all the joys experienced at Wilbur H. Lynch High School. Here we have acquired not only a mastery of subject matter but, what is perhaps more important, a spirit of cooperation and friendship, ever prevalent in these hallowed halls.

Sincerely grateful for the guidance of our teachers, we hope that our lives will prove worthy of their ever-present confidence and faith.

The Delta Chapter of Phi Delta Sorority has been in the spotlight of popularity throughout the year. Activities started with a food sale held at Lurie's. The sorority's annual dance "Autumn Serenade" was a huge success, with music by Jerry Culick and his orchestra.

The sorority devoted its services to completing a project a month. Among these were the construction of posters for the Public Library, decoration of shop windows in behalf of the Tuberculosis Drive, and assisting with the bazaar at the City Hospital. At Christmas time the Phi Deltas adopted a needy family and presented them with a full-course Yuletide meal, clothes, and presents. Amidst the glitter of sparkling snowflakes, depicting the theme of "White Christmas," the annual Phi Delta formal was held at the Century Club—highlighting the evening was the crowning of the Snow Queen.

In February Phi Delta invited its prospective members to a tea at the home of Margo Harris. Phi Delta and Kappa Rho Fraternity sponsored the first spring dance of the year. The spring season also found the members honoring their mothers at a Mother's Day Tea, held at the home of the President, Betty Anne Gargiulo.

Phi Delta contributed to the Heth G. Coons Scholarship Fund and made a donation to the Community Chest.

Climaxing the year's activities, Phi Delta met for the last time at Hotel Johnstown for the traditional banquet. Outgoing Seniors received gifts, and the Sorority Prophecy and Will were read to the delight of all. Our sorority sponsor, Miss Theda Mosher received a gift in appreciation of her sincere friendship and guidance.

Best wishes for happiness and success are expressed to all the departing members. As always, the Beta Beta Chapter of K. E. Society has taken first place in activities around the school. During the past year we have grown in prosperity, honor, and esteem with the helpful guidance of our sponsor, Mrs. Lillian Pattison.

Starting off the year, we held a food sale. Popcorn was sold at all home football games. At Christmas we brought cheer to the less fortunate by a contribution. Throughout the year we remembered the Community Chest and Heth G. Coons Scholarship Fund.

Our annual "Farewell to Football Dance" held in November, featured the drawing of our raffle, announcement of the football captains, and two queens. Snowy December came and so did our sleigh ride. Fun was had by all. In February a pre-lenten dance was held, climaxing the basketball season. Also, many danced midst valentines and romance at our annual formal. A queen was chosen to reign through the evening. A "May Pole Twirl" was sponsored and a May Queen chosen. A Mother-Daughter Banquet was enjoyed.

Four representatives attended the 64th Convention at Utica. Marilyn Gomulka captured first place in a prize-speaking contest, winning a trophy for her chapter.

In January we initiated members. Informal initiation took place at the home of our vice-president and formal at our president's. A new idea of initiating proved popular and helpful in our community.

To bring the year to a memorable close, a banquet was held. Reading the Will and Prophecy brought laughter and tears to our departing Sisters. Good luck and fortune is extended to the Class of '54 and our graduating Sisters: Claudia Cole, President; Marilyn Gomulka, Vice President; Alice Henry, Secretary; Lucinda Dickens, Treasurer; Betty Duffy, Corresponding Secretary; Linda Hewson, Chaplain; Marilyn Majewski, Sergeant-at-Arms; Joan Teets, Reporter; Norine Allen, Evelyn Apostolides, Diane Clifford, Donna Dybas, Mary Lou Morreale, Janet Siwik, and Betty Vainauskas.

Under the guidance of our officers, Bill Pacelli, President; Carl Bahn, Vice President; Donald La Torre, Secretary; Tom Currie, Treasurer; David Shelmandine, Chaplain; Marlin Stanley, Marshal, Gamma Sigma has grown in esteem and fraternal spirit.

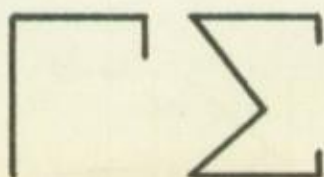

Our first activity was a dance held after the basketball game on January 23. In February, our major activity took place. We held our annual Pledge Week Dance which began Gamma Sigma's thirty-third year of activity.

During the Christmas season we celebrated with gifts to a needy family. Also in January we engaged in a skating party. Members of the fraternity attended the Annual Convocation at Niagara Falls in August. To complete the year, we held our annual banquet.

Thus ended the fraternity life of seniors Bill Pacelli, Dave Shelmandine, Ray D'Onofrio, Bill Mickels, Dave Lasinski, John Pingitore, and James Bromirski.

We hope they will always remember the brotherhood in Gamma Sigma. Good Luck to all of them!

To all the Senior Class, good luck in whatever they may do.

The baseball season proved to be the most successful one of all varsity sports. Although an outstanding year was not realized, a creditable 500 record was attained.

A pleasant surprise was the timely hitting of sophomore, George Schneider. George contributed greatly to many A. H. S. victories with key hits.

With several lettermen returning, there should be an improvement on last season's record. Schneider, Gabe Agosta, Don Czelusniak, Pete Benosky, Art Reiff, Hal Noyes and Bill Richardson, all having gained helpful experience during the past year, should make this baseball season one of which A. H. S. can be proud.

Century Club Poetry Prizes

First prize to Linda Lee Hewson for a collection of poems: "Snow," "Sunlight," and "Oneness."

SNOW

Snow
Casting your blue-white shawl over the earth
Shimmering loveliness
Whose icy jewels bewitch life.
You are the stillness of an instant
When life has gone and time has no meaning.
You are a dream, frozen in crystal
Waiting to be summoned
By the Sun.

TWILIGHT

From where I sit
I see the new moon
Piercing the center of the heavens . . .
A silver scimitar of light
Against a fading sky.
The trees stretch up their arms
Like thin-etched pencil lines
As if to catch and hold
The fast-receding day
Within their grasp.
But fickle is day's love
For she has fled the embrace of earth
And died.
But wait . . .!
She left a tear . . .
The evening star.

Second prize to Eugenia Kansas.

THE STREAM

The stream enclosed between the sloping hills
Reflects the pines as o'er its bed it glides,
Etching the shores in lace of icy frills;
And whispering, a secret it confides.
The pines' responding murmur is unheard
When waters dash against impeding rocks;
For peace, by roar and clamor, is disturbed
As waters fight in vain the stolid blocks.
How like the stream is youth's exuberance
To meet head-on the obstacles of life,
To swirl and crash and lash in ignorance . . .
Tranquility forgotten in such strife!
But yon', the stream now wends again serene,
More calm, more wise, more beautiful, the stream.

EUGENIA KANSAS

ONENESS

Alone,
In the earliness of the morning
I walk beside the sea.
The sun transforms the pale, thin mist
Into translucent wonder;
The sand is cool and damp,
Still bearing the scent of high tide.
The foam-flecked waves sparkle
In the sun . . . while deep beneath
Dark shadows move . . . as silent and as
Lonely as my heart.
Lonely
Because of the oneness of my soul,
Because of the sacred muse of individuality
That dwells within my spirit.
But glad . . .
Glad of the loneliness,
Glad of the sweet, sweet sadness.
I am in myself a thinking, living unit:
In my own hands
Lies destiny.
